

Biden Yamahai Koshu

Product Type: Sake Nihonshu
Category: Junmaï Yamahaï Koshu
Alcohol: Alc. 16% Vol.
Format: 72cl bottle
Producer: Inouegomei
Region: Pref. of Fukuoka
Rice type: Yamadanishiki
Rice milling: 65%
Tasting temp.: Cold
Aromatic profile: Rich, powerful

The nose alone evokes the density that is found in the mouth, this depth gained one hand by the long maturation, but also by the influence of yeasts used (as it is a Yamahai). This gives a rich sake, powerful, with a nice long finish that evokes that cooked wine, fino wines.

A nice amber color for this Koshu aged between 6 and 7 years

72cl - alc. 16% vol.

A nice amber color for this Koshu aged between 6 and 7 years. The nose alone evokes the density that is found in the mouth, this depth gained one hand by the long maturation, but also by the influence of yeasts used (as it is a Yamahai). This gives a rich sake, powerful, with a nice long finish that evokes that cooked wine, fino wines.